ALLIANCE DATA PROVIDES CARD SERVICES
 PERFORMANCE UPDATE FOR FEBRUARY 2018

Dallas, TX, March 15, 2018 – Alliance Data Systems Corporation (NYSE: ADS), a leading global provider of data-driven marketing and loyalty solutions, today provided an update on its Card Services segment.

In conjunction with the release of the Company's Master Trust Monthly Noteholder's Statement, the Company is releasing similar metrics for the overall total managed portfolio. The Master Trust data represents a subset of the Company's total managed portfolio, and the Company believes the information presented below provides a more complete view of the Card Services segment.

	For the month ended February 28, 2018	For the two months ended February 28, 2018
	(dollars in thousands)
Average receivables	$ 17,664,896	$ 17,871,400
Year over year change in average receivables	13%	13%
Net charge-offs	$ 102,089	$ 205,173
Net charge-offs as a percentage of average receivables ⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾	6.9%	6.9%

⁽¹⁾ Compares to 6.5% and 6.3% for the month and two months ended February 28, 2017, respectively. The difference in the year over year net charge-off rate for the month of February is attributable to the impact of the hurricanes of approximately 15 basis points and recovery rates of approximately 40 points.

	As of February 28, 2018	As of February 28, 2017
	(dollars in thousands)
30 days + delinquencies - principal	$ 948,738	$ 768,325
Period ended receivables - principal	$ 16,886,268	$ 14,969,512
Delinquency rate ⁽²⁾	5.6%	5.1%

⁽²⁾ Delinquency and net charge-off rates will be elevated for the first part of 2018 as accounts that were provided a two-month leniency period due to last year's hurricanes will roll through delinquency. In addition, net charge-off rates will be impacted by lower recovery rates as the Company transitions from third-party sales of written-off accounts to in-house collections in order to realize higher long-term recovery rates. Both of these factors are expected to be transitory and dissipate as the year progresses. As such, the Company is targeting a full-year loss rate of 6%.

Forward-Looking Statements

This release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements give our expectations or forecasts of future events and can generally be identified by the use of words such as "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "intend," "project," "plan," "likely," "may," "should" or other words or phrases of similar import. Similarly, statements that describe our business strategy, outlook, objectives, plans, intentions or goals also are forward-looking statements. Examples of forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements we make regarding our expected operating results, future economic conditions including currency exchange rates and the guidance we give with respect to our anticipated financial performance.

We believe that our expectations are based on reasonable assumptions. Forward-looking statements, however, are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the projections, anticipated results or other expectations expressed in this release, and no assurances can be given that our expectations will prove to have been correct. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, factors set forth in the Risk Factors section in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the most recently ended fiscal year, which may be updated in Item 1A of, or elsewhere in, our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed for periods subsequent to such Form 10-K.

Our forward-looking statements speak only as of the date made, and we undertake no obligation, other than as required by applicable law, to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, subsequent events, anticipated or unanticipated circumstances or otherwise.
